

Cancelling your account/service

Before you proceed with cancellation, we'd like to highlight a few alternatives that may better suit your needs:

- Transfer account ownership: If someone else will be using the service, you can transfer the account to their name without needing to cancel.
- Switch to a different plan: If your current plan isn't meeting your requirements, we can help you find one that better fits your budget or usage habits.
- Relocate your service to a new address: Moving soon? We can transfer your service to your new location to ensure uninterrupted access.
- Change to another service type: Explore our other service options, such as Mobile, NBN, and Wireless Broadband, to find one that meets your needs.

A Few Reminders:

- SpinTel services are billed in advance. If you cancel your service before the end of your current billing cycle, your service charges still apply until the end of that billing cycle. We do not provide refunds or pro-rata credits for unused days remaining in the billed period. To make the most of your payment, we recommend selecting a service end date that aligns with the end of your current billing cycle. This allows you to continue using the service through the period you've already paid for.
- If cancellation is requested during the current billing cycle but the selected service end date extends into the next billing cycle, your final bill will include a prorated charge for the days the service remains active in the following cycle.
- However, if your selected end date falls within the same billing cycle, your final bill will remain as is—the full amount for the current month, regardless of your chosen end date. For this reason, we recommend choosing an end date that matches the end of your billing cycle.

If you're unsure of your billing cycle, please refer to the table below.
