Enable or disable usage notifications

Sick of receiving so many usage notifications? You can disable them by following these steps:

- 1. Visit spintel.net.au
- 2. Login to My Account by selecting Customers and then My Account.

RESIDENTIAL	BUSINESS	ABOUT US	✓ CUSTOMERS
S BROADBAND			MY ACCOUNT

3. Once logged in, select the relevant service on the Dashboard and click on Manage Service.

4. From the Service Management section, look for Usage Notifications Settings.

Service Management
Change my plan
Change my service nickname
Change my emergency contact details
Purchase a data-block
Usage notification settings
Change service settings
Order a replacement SIM

5. Click on Update Notifications and select your preference. Click Update to save the changes.

Note: while every enort is made to process	Usage Notification Settings
Service Management
	Alerts will be sent when your usage reaches 50%, 85% and 100%. Please note, disabling notifications entirely may lead to excess data costs.
Change my plan
Change my service nickname	I would like to receive usage notifications to the following:
Change my emergency contact details
Purchase a data-block
Usage notification settings	Cancel Update Usage Notification Settings
Change service settings
Order a replacement SIM

Online URL: https://articles.spintel.net.au/article/enable-or-disable-usage-notifications.html