

How to Access Your SpinTel Account After Link Expiry

When you sign up with SpinTel, you'll receive an email to activate your online account via My Account, our self-service portal. This email contains a unique activation link, which is valid for 7 days. If you don't use the link within this timeframe, it will expire. But don't worry—regaining access to your account is simple.

Follow the steps below to activate your account if your link has expired.

Step 1: Visit the SpinTel Website

To begin, head over to the SpinTel website and navigate to the Customers section.

Select My Account and it will bring you to the login page for My Account.

Step 2: Retrieve Your Username

If your activation link has expired, you'll need to retrieve your username before resetting your password.

1. On the My Account login page, click Forgot Username.

4. Click Submit.

If the email address matches an active account, we will send your username to that email address. Check your inbox for this information.

Step 3: Reset Your Password

Once you have your username, return to the login page and click Forgot Password.

1. Enter your username and tick the CAPTCHA box.
2. Click on Submit.
